

JUDGE HEARS INJUNCTION ARGUMENTS

Judge George E. Hinman sat in the superior court here Friday for a hearing on the application of the operators of public service cars for an injunction to restrain the city of Norwich from putting into force the new traffic regulations on public service cars.

After hearing some testimony, the judge suggested to Attorney Frank L. McGuire and T. J. Kelly for the jitney-men and Corporation Counsel Edwin W. Higgins that he wanted to hear their arguments on the legal points involved before he listened to any more testimony as to the reasonableness of putting such proposed regulations into force. The testimony that had been introduced had been principally substantiated by the claim of reasonableness.

Attorney McGuire and Corporation Counsel Higgins made the arguments, touching principally upon Section 30 of the automobile laws of 1919 and whether this did not interfere with the power of the municipality to pass the proposed regulations.

When the arguments had been concluded about 3:30 o'clock, Judge Hinman took the papers and said he would render a decision just as soon as possible.

Attorney S. W. Baldwin of New Haven representing the Connecticut Co. was in court and conferred with the corporation counsel during the proceedings. Mr. Higgins was ready to have Mr. Baldwin follow him in a brief argument, but Mr. McGuire objected and Mr. Baldwin said he would not care to make any argument against the objections of Mr. McGuire even if the court allowed him to do so.

The hearing began at 11 o'clock and Civil Engineer S. E. Palmer was the first witness called by Mr. Higgins, explaining a blue print of the city streets on which these streets from which the jitney men were to be excluded were marked out in red. They made about three-quarters of a mile of streets out of the city total of 160 miles of streets. Mr. Palmer also explained routes that could be used by the jitneys in case the ordinance were passed.

After a recess from 1 o'clock to 1:45, court resumed its session and Calvin L. Swan of 41 Peck street testified to his observation of congested conditions in Franklin square and the way the public service cars added to it by their habit of circling around the square, frequently three or four at a time, he said, in their solicitation for passengers.

Corporation Counsel Higgins was ready to call on Street Commissioner George E. Fellows next, when the judge said he did not think it necessary to hear any more evidence that would be largely of a cumulative character.

About thirty operators of public service cars were in the spectators' seats in court, while witnesses who were present ready to be called on by the corporation counsel included Mayor H. M. Lerou, Street Commissioner Fellows, Alderman C. V. Pendleton, Superintendent Samuel Anderson of the Connecticut Company, H. H. Gallup, ad Officers John Carroll, Thomas Murphy and Daniel J. O'Neill.

ROCKVILLE TO PLAY IN WILLIMANTIC AGAINST A. T. CO.

Willimantic, Aug. 28.—This (Saturday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock standard time Rockville and Willimantic clash once more on the baseball diamond at Recreation Park when "Chet" Waite brings his all-star aggregation here to battle with the American Thread Company team in the second game of the series between the two clubs.

Manager Davies sends along his probable lineup as follows: Feeley or Match-ton or Fuller or Bober p. Lehmert 3b. Scanlon 2b. Roach ss. Munn 3b. Reynolds lf. Waite cf. Hummford rf. Kennedy and Quigley, utility.

The American Thread Company team will go to bat in the following order: Norman cf. Beecher c. Horkheimer ss. Noel cf. McGinley c. Adams 1b. Hamel 3b. Smith rf. Cooney p.

Waite, who is the field leader of the Rockville aggregation is an old hand at the business and well known in this section. It will be interesting to watch the battle of wits between him and Coach Arthur Nichols of the locals, aside from any other features the game may have, and they promise to be many.

The home team is still smarting under the defeat administered to them at Rockville and are confident that they can prove to the fans that they are the better team.

A goodly number of rooters who made the trip to Rockville are of this opinion also. Tomorrow's doings alone will tell. It looks like a red-hot baseball argument from any angle. Pick your seats early and avoid the rush.

Sunday's game with the Providence Independents also promises to be a fast game. "Hughie" Kane, late of the Boston Braves and Memphis of the Southern league will twirl for the American Thread. Canavan is a left hander and is a steady man when handling the leather.

Rivals Reply to Hanover.

In answer to Manager McDonald's letter, those nine pills the Hospital team handed his club last Saturday must have affected him. Now, to come down to business, the Rivals will play Hanover team the best two games out of three, the first game to take place in Hanover on Saturday, Sept. 11th, and the next the 26th (Sunday) in Baltic. The Rivals will use their regular lineup.

Now, Manager McDonald, take it or leave it, as you sent me the first card to play the game. The sporting public can judge for themselves as far as the Murderers' Row goes; they must be pretty good when you signed one up to play for Hanover. He is some good ball player even if he don't play with the Rivals. He has his reasons, and the manager of the Rivals agrees with him as far as that goes.

H. COLLINS, Manager.

MILLBURY LEGION TEAM COMING TO GROSVENORDALE

The game that the fans of eastern Windham county have been looking forward to for several weeks has at last been announced by Manager Tom McDermott of the Grovesnorale Braves. On Sunday afternoon at 3:30, daylight saving time, on the North Grovesnorale grounds, the Braves will for the second time this season meet the Millbury American Legion team. This team which played at North Grovesnorale last month, was the first team to defeat the Braves on their own grounds. They did it by a score of 5 to 4, but it took twelve innings. Manager Tom is convinced that his is the superior bunch of ball players, and that when everything is over on this second meeting of the teams, the story will be different than it was early in July. In order to strengthen his team to the limit he has secured Powers to pitch for him on Sunday. Tunny, who has twirled some of the games for the Braves this season will be in the box for the ex-soldiers, and will face his former team mates. Greenhaugh will be in the right garden for the locals, and Duff, who last week made the most sensational catch of the season on the Grovesnorale grounds, will again be in the lineup. Phillips will catch. In all other respects Manager Tom will play the same team that he used last week against the Boston Americans. The Millbury soldiers will have the same lineup, except for pitcher, that they had when the two teams met before. Eddie Jansen of Providence will umpire, and things will hum from the time he calls "play ball" until the last man is retired.

The Colonials of Norwich will come to Putnam Sunday afternoon for a game with the Manhasset team. It will be played on Manhasset field, and is called for 2:15.

The sentry, a Buddhist, was embarrassed. To lay violent hands upon the holy convict was out of the question; it allowed him to escape would bring punishment upon himself. As the passage doors were locked and the priest wailed for the present, the sentry ventured to remove the bars with a charge on the impropriety of his behavior.

The tramp of the relief guard was heard outside. The sentry knelt and implored the priests to return to his cell. The door opened upon the three uniformed sentry in an attitude of supplication before a convict.

The Punjabee, who formed the relief guard, not being Buddhist, had no respect for phonyisms. The convict was promptly bundled into a new cell.

Toledo Sword Factory.

In the famous sword factory at Toledo, in Spain, absolute secrecy surrounds some of the processes employed in the making of these celebrated blades, although under certain conditions visitors are allowed to go through the factory. No one, however, is permitted to look upon the final secrets of tempering.

In the first room there may be seen a curious large round shield fastened against the wall, where the last test of a finished sword is made. It is thrown against this target as an arrow is thrown from a bow. If its point is perfect, well and good; it does not turn a fraction of the finest hair's breadth. If the blade makes an escape from this trial and it usually does, it is worthy to be marked with the royal sign and the word "Arteria," that proves that it was made in Toledo. If the point wavers even in a manner imperceptible to the unpracticed eye, the blade must go back to a renewal of its fiery discipline.

At one table a man working by aid of wax and a sharp pointed needle like instrument, is busily engaged in the lettering of a blade. At another table is an artisan pounding with a fine sharp edged sort of a hammer, working out a handle pattern. There are several hundred employees in this sword factory, and a great many of them are boys of not twenty, but the most trusted workers are not often young.
